

fucking wheel

jackson-spider

riding in the subway / stuffed like a tin box no one is talking / just staring at his socks everyone's exhausted / like workers in the docks i know
something's wrong with this life

the telephone is ringing / someone's threaten with a job your problems are boring me / from the bottom to the top better leave me alone now / 'cause now it's time to rock
i know
something's wrong with your life
something's wrong with your life

ref.: i'm always running, running, running / tripping, tripping, tripping / falling, falling, falling in this fucking wheel
I am always

driving through the badlands / there's nothing left to see just an old shepherd / 'n' behind him the sea would this make me happy / or put me down to knees
i know
something's wrong in my life

lying in the sand / my mind blows up to you I wanna make you happy / 'n' make you feel good Don't wanna be your daddy / don't wanna be your fool
i know
something's wrong with my life

in this fucking wheel
in this fucking wheel
